

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law allows me to enjoy peaceful evenings. I have no desire to be solicited. With the options I have available I can pursue any needs for goods or services without being involuntarily solicited. The Consumer Bankers Association's proceeding is nothing more than seeking to invade my privacy with unwanted solicitations.